

David Copperfield

David's step-father mistreats him cruelly and breaks his mother's spirit. She dies, and his nurse, Peggotty, took him to Yarmouth, where her family lived in an upside-down boat. David works for his step-father and lodges with the Micawbers. When they leave to escape their creditors, David finds his only living relative, Miss Trotwood, who sends him to school, where he lodges with Mr Wickfield and his daughter Agnes. He marries Dora, who dies. Uriah Heep, whom Wickfield foolishly took into partnership, is exposed by Mr Micawber. Agnes always loved David, and he, at last, on returning from abroad, marries her. They marry.
