

Great Expectations

Pip fell in love with Estella, who broke his heart. Miss Haversham had trained Estelle to break men's hearts in revenge for the man who left her at the altar. Pip came into a fortune while still apprenticed to the village blacksmith. He learned later that his benefactor was the convict Magwitch, whom he had helped as a child, not Miss Haversham. Estelle married Drummle, who mistreated her, Pip's attempt to enable Magwitch to escape fails, Magwitch is sentenced to death and Pip makes his fortune abroad. He and Estella, now widowed, leave the late Miss Haversham's garden hand in hand.
