

Henry IV Part 1

Hal, Prince of Wales, leads a dissolute life keeping company with the likes of Falstaff, while the King faces discontent from the Percy family. Owen Glendower had defeated the King's army and captured its leader Edmund Mortimer, whom he King refuses to ransom. The Percy family, notably Henry Percy, "Hotspur", stir rebellion with others including Glendower. Hal is rebuked by his father and makes amends by valiance against the rebels. He challenges Hotspur to single combat, but Hotspur makes battle, in which he is killed by Hal. The rebels are soundly defeated. Falstaff tries to steal the glory for Hotspur's death.
