

The Two Gentlemen of Verona

Valentine of Verona goes to the court of the Duke of Milan with Proteus, who leaves his beloved Julia in Verona. Both fall for the Duke's daughter, Silvia. Valentine plans to elope with her, but is betrayed by Proteus and banished. Silvia escapes and is captured by outlaws, led by the banished Valentine. Julia followed Proteus to Milan disguised as a page, goes with the Duke, Proteus and others to Silvia's rescue. Valentine and Proteus make peace, Proteus is covered with shame on recognising Julia. The Duke approves Valentine's marriage to Silvia, pardons the outlaws, and Proteus and Julia are reconciled.

© Roderick Ramage 23.iv.2016